

CHARTERED PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANTS

Joe Sinclair

An Honours Business graduate from the Ivey Business School at the University of Western Ontario in 1968, Joe obtained his Chartered Professional Accountant designation in 1971 while working for a national accounting firm, Ernst and Young, in London, Ontario.

Joe has been a partner at Kendall Sinclair & Partners since 1975 and has been actively involved in business valuations, management consulting and personal and corporate taxation. He is a strong believer in the integration of accounting, taxation, wealth management services and estate planning.

Joe lives near Callander with his wife, Mary, where they have raised their two sons, Ken and Tim. In his spare time, Joe enjoys fishing, gardening and outdoor activities and planning his next travel adventure.
